Mrs. G. W. Summer and Mrs. Oscar Summer, with Carroll and Earle, left Monday for Hendersonville. Miss Grace Summer went there Friday.

Mr. G. E. McCary of Newberry was a recent week-end guest of his brother, Mr. R. P. McCary.—Meeting Street cor. Edgefield Chronicle, 19th.

Mr. J. Fred Schumpert returned last week from Iva, Anderson county, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. W. T. A. Sheard, who came for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brown have returned from St. Louis, Mo., and Dallas, Texas, coming by way of New Orleans, La. Mr. Brown says the crops are fine.

Mr. Homer Fellers, Misses Ruby Fellers, Sallie Lee Cromer and Mattie Cromer motored to Augusta last week returning on Saturday after a very pleasant trip.

Mrs. Clisby, the mother of Mr. M. B. Clisby, arrived last week from West Point, Miss., to accompany her son back to his former home about the last of the month.

Miss Georgia Neal, who has been visiting at her home here, has returned to Atlanta. Miss Neal holds the responsible position of registrar at the Georgia School of Technology.

Miss Cunningham, a former milliner here, has returned to the service of Haliwanger & Carpenter. This will be good news to many, who were so well pleased with her during her stay in this city.

Mr. Paul M. Smith, after a week's visit here to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith, returned on Friday to Montgomery, Ala., to resume his work with the Southern Cotton Oil company in that city.

Mr. James A. Burton and Misses Mary and Bess Burton motored to Laurens Friday to see Mr. Joseph F. Burton, who was seriously ill. The latest gratifying news from the sick man is that he is better.

Mrs. M. G. Sheppard and little son and Mrs. Wyche Dickert returned last week from the mountains to their new and pleasantly situated homes over the up to date laundry just opened up in Friend street.

Mrs. T. M. Rogers and children returned on Saturday from their Georgia trip. Mr. Rogers tried to build an additional room to the house during their absence, but the carpenters didn't quite finish the job.

Mr. and Mrs. Swittenburg and baby of Kingstree and Mrs. Caldwell of Newberry are visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Aull. Mrs. Aull gave her guests a lovely party Wednesday morning.—Ninety-Six cor. The State, 22nd.

The Rev. Enoch Hite has resigned the Bethlehem pastorate, Pomaria, S. C., and has accepted a call to the East Hickory pastorate, Hickory, N. C. A call has been extended by the Bethlehem pastorate to the Rev. H. A. Kistler, Blountville, Tenn.—The Lutheran.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Long and daughter, Mrs. C. W. Long, of Atlanta are visiting their former home in Newberry. In renewing her subscription Mrs. G. A. Long says The Herald and News is just like a letter from home. We were pleased to see these ladies, who appear to be in the most enjoyable health; hadn't seen Mr. Long at the time of writing.

Dr. and Mrs. Pelham returned last week from Hendersonville.

Mr. J. Tom Mayes returned last week from Charleston, after a visit to his son, Mr. Jesse B. Mayes.

Misses Marguerite and Edna Jacobs of Newberry are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. W. M. Eleazer.—Miss Janette Frick of Little Mountain spent the week-end with Esta and Ollie Clark.—Chapin cor. Lexington Dispatch-News.

Mr. E. H. Cousins returned home last week without the other members of his party who had gone from Newberry to take a trip by auto to Tennessee via Asheville. On account of the bad condition of the roads due to the recent rains they did not go on to their destination. Mr. Cousins left his party in Asheville to return home with the car from that point as soon as the roads were passable. He came back by the train route. The others returned since the above was written.

Mr. W. G. Peterson, another faithful ex-attache and veteran of the Newberry postoffice, has also been retired on the pension list. He was the first R. F. D. carrier from the office and for 17 years served the people well and acceptably. Mr. Peterson has made himself very popular with the patrons along Route 1 by his agreeable and friendly nature and accommodating spirit and good manners, attributes which are not possessed by every man these days of fast living.

Mr. W. H. Miller of Charleston, who lived in Newberry many years ago, spent the week-end here on a visit to his relatives, Messrs H. H. and E. M. Evans. It has been 16 years since Mr. Miller last visited here. For 45 years he has been connected with the well known firm of Walker, Evans & Cogswell, Charleston, a fine house in a great city. We were pleased to renew acquaintance and revive friendship with Mr. Miller, who is a Southern gentleman of pleasing personality.

Dr. O'Neill Jacobs and family of Newberry have moved to Laurens, where the former will follow his profession as veterinarian.—Laurensville Herald. We would like to tell you, as we have told others before, that if he makes as good a surgeon of his profession as his brother, Dr. Boyd Jacobs, and we see no reason why he should not, being as it is in the family, Laurens county will have as fine a veterinarian as ever graduated from college and practiced the art, combining the theoretical and practical parts of the business.

Dr. James M. Johnson and little son William of Washington, D. C., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, and other relatives in Newberry, spending a part of his well earned vacation in his former home city, while Mrs. Johnson and the little daughter are on a visit to their relatives in Maryland. Dr. Johnson's many friends are glad to see him. They watch his course with interest, taking a pride in his responsible position as chemist for the government at the national capital, where he is giving such good and satisfactory service.

The Rev. I. E. Long of Charleston, pastor of St. Johannes Lutheran church, although resting from his labors here on his vacation with his family, visiting relatives in this city, accommodated and pleased the congregation of the Church of the Redeemer and other friends on Sunday morning by preaching an edifying sermon on the words, "What Think Ye of Christ?" It was a strong and convincing presentation of the subject. Under the spell of the preacher's plea the thought, "Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by," came to mind. The Rev. Mr. Long has many friends here and they are always glad of the opportunity to hear him preach.

Pleasant Occasion. Wednesday evening, August 18, was a very enjoyable one spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Green in honor of their daughter, Eddie Marie.

The entire front porch, parlor and hallway were attractively decorated and thrown open to the happy throng of young couples.

Indoor games was the only sport
